Dear Sir: I am writing to you regarding WalMart and banking. Wal Mart has had their fingers in everything lately and I am concerned. I am concerned because they will eventually create a monopoly in every aspect of business. They are a large company, granted they worked hard, but so have we, and I can't see them telling me in the future how much my money will be worth unless I spend it at WalMart. That's what will eventually happen. Just as the prophecies told. One business (largest in the world and sells everything, one currency (WalMart already has their own WalMart Credit card and Discover card) now they want to control the cash aspect. Please do not let this happen, we will be sorry. I am an employee of WalMart and I have seen things happen that scare me. They seem to have so much power over us. I am afraid.
